YWIH JUDGE • CHORUS • QUARTET TRAINING

Refine your listening skills and extend your understanding of the judging categories

SATURDAY 24 & SUNDAY 25 NOVEMBER 2018
LOCATION: WELLINGTON | COST: $35 PER PERSON
PRESENTER: HENRIETTA HUNKIN-TAGALOA

If you are an aspiring judge, or you would like to refine your listening skills and extend your understanding of the intricacies of the judging categories, join SAI Approved Candidate Sound Judge Henrietta Hunkin-Tagaloa for a weekend workshop in Wellington, 24-25 November 2018

We are looking for people keen to judge in any of the four categories - sound, music, expression and showmanship. If you are an aspiring judge, or would like to refine your listening skills this is the event for you, save the date now!
Registrations will close mid November.

THE WORKSHOP OFFERS:

- The chance to become an approved Region 35 YWIH Contest judge and progress to judging at Regional and National YWIH contests.
- Excellent learning opportunities for chorus and quartet members.
- Valuable training to improve your listening skills - highly recommended for music/showmanship team members, section leaders and assessors.
